THREE HAIKU FOR ME AND MY FRIENDS WHO ARE TOO DEEP FOR OUR OWN DAMN GOOD

• • •

On rainy days waves

Make a mad dash for the shore,

Crash and then recede.

We are foolish waves.

Rain impels us to move too

Fast, collide with rocks

Struggle through seaweeds

That tangle at our feet and

Pull us down too deep.

Calabash: A Journal of Caribbean Arts and Letters is an international literary journal dedicated to publishing works encompassing, but not limited to, the Anglophone, Francophone, Hispanophone and Dutch-speaking Caribbean. The Journal is especially dedicated to presenting the arts and letters of those communities that have long been under-represented within the creative discourse of the region, among them: Aruba and the Netherlands Antilles, Maroon societies, and the Asian and Amerindian societies of the region. Calabash has a strong visual arts component.

Calabash is published by New York University. Please contact the publisher for further permissions regarding the use of this work. Publisher information may be obtained at:
