Drisana Deborah Jack

**}***

Boundaries

Should the ties that bind Cut off the breath that gives us Peace while birth wrongs And rights come back to haunt us To roost

Should the ties that bind betray The heart the purity of agape with viral strains At the rings that bind us (worn on the akward hand)

Should the ties that bind